Join Us for An In-Depth Discussion with National Leaders and Researchers in the Area of Disability and Employment

What: National Capacity Building Institute (University Credit Available), ÔProfessional Employment for Individuals with Disabilities: Issues of Preparation and Transition.Ó

When and Where: February 12-13, 2003, Sheraton Waikiki, Honolulu, Hawaii, following the Annual Pacific Rim Conference.

Who Should Attend: Secondary school and special educators, secondary and postsecondary career guidance counselors, transition specialists, postsecondary education support personnel, rehabilitation counselors, individuals with disabilities, researchers, and other persons interested in employment opportunities for individuals with disabilities.

Invited Speakers: Paul Wehman, Virginia Commonwealth University; Martha Thurlow, University of Minnesota; Glen White, University of Kansas; David Johnson, University of Minnesota; Mary Mack & Kelly Crane, Univ of Minnesota and TransCen Inc.; Peg Lamb, Michigan State University; Robert Stodden & Megan Conway, University of Hawaii.

Agenda: Includes pre-Institute readings and online discussion, presentations by nationally recognized speakers, interactive discussion groups, special activities, and post-Institute follow-up.

To apply online please go to the web at: http://www.cds.hawaii.edu

For more information or to apply by mail please contact:

Velina Sugiyama
NCSET
Center on Disability Studies
1776 University Ave UA 4-6
Honolulu, HI 96822
Tel: 808-956-5688
Fax: 808-956-7878
Email: velina@hawaii.edu

Sponsored by the National Center on Secondary Education and Transition (NCSET), University of Minnesota, and the National Center for the Study of Postsecondary Educational Supports (NCSPPES), University of Hawaii. Co-sponsored by the Real Choices Project, the Center for the Study of Cultural and Linguistic Diversity and Disability (CLD), and the Hawaii Imua Project.